

HUS HAPPENINGS

February 2009

A Year of Change

Over the course of the past year our congregation, our city, our state, and our nation have seen many changes. Hus Presbyterian Church began a new season in its history as we moved forward without a lead pastor. Our city, not knowing what would come in June, declared 2008 the "Year of the River." Our state was hit by not one, but two major disasters. The first of these disasters came in May when tornados nearly destroyed several communities. Then in June when the largest natural disaster in the country flooded nearly every county in Iowa, the brunt of which came to Eastern Iowa as over 5000 homes were damaged or destroyed. In November our country voted for change when the first African American was elected President of the United States.

In the past year we have seen how well the Elders of Hus Presbyterian Church have represented our congregation. They have helped guide the church through our current season without a lead pastor making solid decisions through much discernment and prayer. Adopting the "Child Protection Policy and Procedures" manual was one of the most intensive of those decisions.

Additionally, we as a congregation witnessed the true connectional nature of the Presbyterian Church. We saw first as Presbyterian churches came together to help when tornadoes ripped through Iowa. Then again during the floods as Presbyterian churches from all over the United States provided cleaning buckets and other supplies to help people affected by the flooding that devastated so many communities in Iowa. Christ Church Presbyterian and Westminster Presbyterian Church in Cedar Rapids and St. Andrews Presbyterian Church in Iowa City continue to host workers from all over the United States through Presbyterian Disaster Assistance. Hus helped provide meals to the workers at Christ Church, provided lodging for those who came in October as part of 8 Days of Hope, financially helped those from our congregation whose homes were severely damaged or even destroyed and then finished the year by raising enough money to provide a Thanksgiving and a Christmas meal to six families through Matthew 25. Then four churches (Calvin-Sinclair Presbyterian Church, Christ Church Presbyterian, Hus Presbyterian Church and Olivet Presbyterian Church) showed how churches that were either too small or had been affected by the flooding could come together to have Vacation Bible School.

"Hope – Hope in the face of difficulty. Hope in the face of uncertainty. The audacity of hope! In the end, that is God's greatest gift to us, the bedrock of this nation. A belief in things not seen. A belief that there are better days ahead."

"What is Lent? It is forty days of stripping down to the living essentials; It is forty days of facing truth about one's self-indulgent evasions; It is forty days of fellowshiping with Christ in the desert; It is forty days of rejoicing in God's mercy and forgiveness."

The Presbyterian Covenant Community Fund

What is per capita?

Per capita funding is how Presbyterians mutually share the costs of coming together to discern the Spirit's leading for the future.

It is how Presbyterians are trained to become better elders and ministers.

It is how Presbyterians discern God's call in their lives.

It is how Presbyterians participate in the life of the wider church by serving on GA committees and commissions.

It is how Presbyterians participate in the life of the Church universal as we commit ourselves to work and live in fellowship with "all persons in every nation" (Book of Order, G-4.0101)

The Westminster Confession says, "all believers, are therefore, under obligation to sustain the ordinances of the Christian religion where they are already established, and to contribute by their prayers, gifts, and personal efforts to the extension of the Kingdom of God throughout the whole earth" (6.058).

Per capita is a fundamental way in which all of the nearly 11,000 congregations and governing bodies of the Presbyterian Church (U.S.A.) are connected and participate in the work of the wider church.

Because it is rooted in the connectional and covenantal nature of the Presbyterian church, as affirmed by the ordination vows taken by elders and ministers of the Word and Sacrament, per capita could be called the Presbyterian Covenant Community Fund

What's Presbyterian worship like?

The order of a Sunday worship service in a Presbyterian church is determined by the pastor and the session, the church's governing body. It generally includes prayer, music, Bible reading and a sermon based upon scripture. The Sacraments, a time of personal response/offering, and a sharing of community concerns are also parts of worship.

The constitution of the Presbyterian Church (U.S.A.) suggests that worship be ordered in terms of five major actions centered in the word of God (gathering around the word, proclaiming the word, responding to the word, the sealing of the word, and bearing and following the word into the world), but recognizes that "other orders of worship may also serve the needs of a particular church and be orderly, faithful to Scripture, and true to historic principles." (Book of Order, W-3.3202)

Prayer:

"Prayer is at the heart of worship. In prayer, through the Holy Spirit, people seek after and are found by the one true God who has been revealed in Jesus Christ. They listen and wait upon God, call God by name, remember God's gracious acts, and offer themselves to God. Prayer may be spoken, sung, offered in silence, or enacted. Prayer grows out of the center of a person's life in response to the Spirit. Prayer is shaped by the Word of God in Scripture and by the life of the community of faith. Prayer issues in commitment to join God's work in the world." (Book of Order, W-2.1001)

Music:

"Song is a response which engages the whole self in prayer. Song unites the faithful in common prayer wherever they gather for worship whether in church, home, or other special place . . . through the ages and from varied cultures, the church has developed additional musical forms for congregational prayer. Congregations are encouraged to use these diverse musical forms for prayer as well as those which arise out of the musical life of their own cultures. To lead the congregation in the singing of prayer is a primary role of the choir and other musicians. They also may pray on behalf of the congregation with introits, responses, and other musical forms. Instrumental music may be a form of prayer since words are not essential to prayer. In worship music is not to be for entertainment or artistic display. Care should be taken that it not be used merely as a cover for silence." (Book of Order, W-2.1003 - W-2.1004)

Scripture:

"The church confesses the Scriptures to be the Word of God written, witnessing to God's self-revelation. Where that Word is read and proclaimed, Jesus Christ the Living Word is present by the inward witness of the Holy Spirit. For this reason the reading, hearing, preaching, and confessing of the Word are central to Christian worship. The session shall ensure that in public worship the Scripture is read and proclaimed regularly in the common language(s) of the particular church." (Book of Order, W-2.2001)

"The minister of Word and Sacrament is responsible for the selection of Scripture to be read in all services of public worship and should exercise care so that over a period of time the people will hear the full message of Scripture. It is appropriate that in the Service for the Lord's Day there be readings from the Old Testament and the Epistles and Gospels of the New Testament. The full range of the psalms should be also used in worship. Selections for reading in public worship should be guided by the seasons of the church year, pastoral concerns for a local congregation, events and conditions in the world, and specific program emphases of the church. Lectionaries offered by the church ensure a broad range of readings as well as consistency and connection with the universal Church." (Book of Order, W-2.002 - W-2.003)

Preaching:

"The preached Word or sermon is to be based upon the written Word. It is a proclamation of Scripture in the conviction that through the Holy Spirit Jesus Christ is present to the gathered people, offering grace and calling for obedience . . . the sermon should present the gospel with simplicity and clarity, in language which can be understood by the people . . . the preaching of the Word shall ordinarily be done by a minister of Word and Sacrament. (Book of Order, W-2.2007)

Never wavering in God's promise we move forward prayerfully seeking God's will. We have a great example in Abraham. ²⁰*Abraham never wavered in believing God's promise. In fact, his faith grew stronger, and in this he brought glory to God.* ²¹*He was fully convinced that God is able to do whatever he promises.* ²²*And because of Abraham's faith, God counted him as righteous.* ²³*And when God counted him as righteous, it wasn't just for Abraham's benefit. It was recorded* ²⁴*for our benefit, too, assuring us that God will also count us as righteous if we believe in him, the one who raised Jesus our Lord from the dead.* ²⁵*He was handed over to die because of our sins, and he was raised to life to make us right with God. (Romans 4:20-25 NLT)*

We are definitely a distinctly confessional and connectional congregation of believers who are also doers. We have more to be thankful for than we could possibly imagine. As we say goodbye to 2008 we welcome Pastor Mel Ramos to our pulpit three weeks out of each month bringing more stability to our wonderful church. As we begin the 120th year of ministry at Hus Presbyterian Church I look forward to seeing what God has in store for our congregation, our city, our state and our nation in the coming year of our Lord 2009!

Because of Him,

Terry

(<http://www.pcusa.org/101/101-distinct.htm>)

"The Word is also proclaimed through song in anthems and solos based on scriptural texts, in cantatas and oratorios which tell the biblical story, in psalms and canticles, and in hymns, spirituals, and spiritual songs which present the truth of the biblical faith. Song in worship may also express the response of the people to the Word read, sung, enacted, or proclaimed. Drama and dance, poetry and pageant, indeed, most other human art forms are also expressions through which the people of God have proclaimed and responded to the Word." (Book of Order, W-2.2008)

Sacraments: "The Sacraments of Baptism and the Lord's Supper are God's acts of sealing the promises of faith within the community of faith as the congregation worships, and include the responses of the faithful to the Word proclaimed and enacted in the Sacraments." (Book of Order, W-3.3601)

Offering: "The Christian life is an offering of one's self to God. In worship the people are presented with the costly self-offering of Jesus Christ, are claimed and set free by him, and are led to respond by offering to him their lives, their particular gifts and abilities, and their material goods. Worship should always offer opportunities to respond to Christ's call to become disciples by professing faith, by uniting with the church, and by taking up the mission of the people of God, as well as opportunities for disciples to renew the commitment of their lives to Jesus Christ and his mission in the world." (Book of Order, W-2.5001 - W-2.5002)

Community concerns: "Worship is an activity of the common life of the people of God in which the care of the members for each other and for the quality of their life and ministry together expresses the reality of God's power to create and sustain community in the midst of a sinful world. As God is concerned for the events in daily life, so members of the community in worship appropriately express concern for one another and for their ministry in the world." (Book of Order, W-2.6001)

Sunday Evening Meal Program

For the past several years groups (the youth have been doing this for nearly 5 years) from Hus Church have been helping to serve the meals at First Presbyterian Church. Recently they celebrated their 20th anniversary. The following was printed in one of their recent newsletters:

This year marks a significant anniversary for the Sunday Evening Meals Program at First Presbyterian Church. It was twenty years ago on November 8, 1988 that the first meal was served to 34 people by a group led by June and Bob Bradley. Members of our church had viewed a film of a similar offering at a Presbyterian church in Pennsylvania. Together with past and present members Virginia Hartunian, Frances Lackner, Sandy Padilla, James Holcomb, Jean Ashby, David Crew, Peter Zevenbergen, Bob Fisher, Mary Lou Anderson, and Jan and Cal DeVries, our program began. Susan Goettel procured, planned, and prepared the food for many years and still returns to assist when needed, for which we are very grateful. She is to be loudly applauded. Each Sunday our guests are provided a nutritious, balanced meal in a local health department approved setting with background Christian music. On the preceding Friday one or two church volunteers pick up donations of bread and desserts from a local Hy-Vee store. On Sunday, our very affable and experienced cook, Linda Willard, purchases fresh produce, eggs, and milk at a discounted rate from Hy-Vee. HACAP's commodities and donations provide the rest.

This meal program is truly an expression of Christianity at work as our members acknowledge Christ through their involvement in human and social services. For several years our program has received generous amounts of money through federal programs with additional portions coming from local mission, the Thrift Shop, individual donations (both of food and money), and the Area Crop Walk. SEMP provides its own supplies and the salaries of its cook and dishwasher as well. For many years we were blessed with live piano music afforded by Billie Rusher, who has since retired to a Fort Madison care center.

Volunteers come from our own group as well as area churches, service groups, colleges, high schools, scout troops, and youth groups. Periodic visits to the Thrift Shop afford needed clothing to our guests as do generous contributions of warm outerwear. Last year one patron provided Christmas gifts as well. The recent tragic flood afforded new challenges to our guests and our program as we were displaced for several months. Still we continued to serve meals, adding clothing and other supplies to our regular dinner offerings. Local gardeners donated wonderful fresh produce on several occasions.

For the years of service of the program's originators, the very capable team of Margaret Jackson and Marilue Watkins supervised the program until 2001, at which time this service offering became a personal blessing to me. First Presbyterian Church is recognized as a caring Christian community of believers. As an extension of that group, the SEMP program would welcome your participation, donations and prayers.

Exploring God's World

Hus Church Sunday School is from 10:45 am - 11:30 am each Sunday

Kids ages 3-5th grade will meet in the Scripture Safari Room.
From there, we'll direct the kids to their station for the day.

Psalm 23:

The Lord is my shepherd, I shall not want.

He makes me lie down in green
pastures;

he leads me beside still waters;
he restores my soul.

He leads me in right paths for his name's sake.

Even though I walk through the
darkest valley,

I fear no evil; for you are with me;
your rod and your staff - they comfort me.

You prepare a table before me in the presence of my enemies;

you anoint my head with oil;
my cup overflows.

Surely goodness and mercy shall
follow me all the days of my life,
and I shall dwell in the house of the Lord forever.

Psalm 100:

Shout for joy to the Lord, all the earth,

Serve the Lord with gladness;

Come before him with joyful songs.

Know that the Lord is God. It is he who made us, and we are his;

We are the sheep of his pasture.

Enter his gates with thanksgiving
and his courts with praise;

Give thanks to him and praise his name.

For the Lord is good and his love
endures forever;

His faithfulness continues through all generations.

The kids in Rotational Sunday School have been studying the Psalms (Psalm 23 and Psalm 100). Hopefully, all of the kids will be able to memorize BOTH of them!! We hope you joined us in this challenge!!

Our study of the Psalms will end on Feb. 15. We will start a study on the Armor of God from Ephesians 6:11-18. Again, this is a natural spin-off from studying King David in the fall. We are all in a spiritual battle and need to prepare!!

OUR HEARTS

This special Bible verse from the NIV describes what God wants us to do with our hearts.

1.

Start with the center heart marked with * and write its word on the blank.

2.

Then follow the arrows underneath each blank to find the remaining words.

"Trust _____, _____, _____, _____, _____,"
 _____;
 _____,
 _____,"
 _____.

HEARTS in the morning

Start your morning with heart. Enjoy this special breakfast with someone you love!

What you need:

- Your favorite pancake recipe and syrup
- Pan or griddle
- Cooking spray
- Liquid measuring cup
- One 5-inch heart-shaped metal cookie cutter
- Wooden clothespin
- Spatula
- Adult help

What you do:

1. With an adult's help, follow your recipe to make your favorite pancakes.
2. Spray cooking spray onto your pan or griddle.
3. Pour pancake batter into a liquid measuring cup. (This helps with pouring individual pancakes.)
4. Place the cookie cutter on the pan or griddle. Then clip the wooden clothespin onto the cookie cutter to act as a handle.
5. Pour batter (about 3-4 Tablespoons) into the cookie cutter.
6. Cook until the top is bubbly and the pancake is dry around the edges.
7. When the heart is ready to flip, use the clothespin to lift and remove the cookie cutter.
8. Turn the pancake with the spatula and cook until golden on both sides. Enjoy with your favorite syrup or fruit.

Answer: "Trust in him at all times, O people; pour out your hearts to him, for God is our refuge." Psalm 62:8
